

Power Peers Network

Presentations & Workshops

Are you ready to talk about what matters?

To reaffirm your values and beliefs, and walk your talk more fully in life?

To converse with peers who listen with respect and seek to understand?

To be inspired by the human spirit and expand your perspectives?

It's possible. It happens every week in the Power Peers Network calls.

Presentations by Laura Piening of the Power Peers Network teach skills and motivate you:

- To learn the guidelines, process and topics to lead and facilitate deep conversations.
- To experience how it feels to speak from your heart and explore ideas with others.
- To get a sense of the power inherent in living what you truly believe.

BOOK THE FORMAT THAT BEST SERVES YOUR GROUP

- 20-minute presentation with exercises to engage audience
- Workshop with breakouts for participants to experience Power Peers conversations
- Multi-session seminar to expand awareness and the capacity to live your core values
- All presentations available via video-conference calls
